

Navy Gal

To make a better life for herself, Rosalind Garcia, a Mexican American beauty from the barrios of East Los Angeles, California, leaves behind a series of failed adult jobs and rocky relationships in Hollywood to enlist in the United States Navy. However, before she joins the military, handsome William MacKenzie beguiles Rosa and later becomes a naval aviator managing to pop in and out of her navy life like a weasel. As Aviation Storekeeper Garcia rises through the ranks to become a naval officer, she encounters gender discrimination in a navy dominated mostly by men. Lieutenant Garcia battles emotional conflicts over her failed naval marriages and her own motherhood, managing with undaunted courage to stay ardently in charge of her destiny, determined to achieve her goals. Travel with Navy Gal from the exotic Hawaiian Islands to Europe, Northern Africa, and across the United States. Enjoy US Naval history and Rosalind's bold poetry. Interspersed with powerful visual accounts of childhood traumas, family sagas, bittersweet romances, and tragic losses of loved ones, this raw and evocative tale of a woman in the Navy will keep you wanting for more. When Rosa uncovers a hidden secret about her abusive mother, she learns later in life that one can bury the past, but it never fully decomposes.
