

Seeking Sarah (A Modern Highland Romance Book 2)

After Sarah was forced to return to Seattle and leave the love of her life back in the Scottish Highlands, her life just hasn't been the same. That is until Finlay, a young Scotsman who lives in a rural Scottish clan separated from modern society, braves the dangers of modern city life in search of his lost love. When the two young lovers reunite in Seattle, they must decide if they want to live their lives in modern-day America, or in an ancient village nestled in the Scottish hills.
