

How to cope with a Cheating Spouse addresses the questions that arise when you find out your spouse is cheating. When you are tired or staying in pain and confused with your spouses cheating, you need help and direction. This volume provides direction for those who are struggling to cope with their spouses affair. When to consider divorce, what about Parent Alienation Syndrome, when to forgive your spouse for cheating, how to quit hurting after an affair, what to talk about with a cheating spouse, how to fight with your spouse, how to trust a cheating wife, how to trust a cheating husband and how to build intimacy with your spouse are some of the issues addressed in this volume. By taking the reader sequentially through a series of helps, you know how to deal with the confusing chaos which often occurs with affairs. An affair does not mean the relationship is over. It does mean that some changes are needed. Rather than wander lost and confused, you can have direction, hope and know what to avoid. You can learn from the lessons of other couples and not make the same mistakes.
