

Dethroning Poverty from the Golden Throne

Dethroning Poverty from the Golden Throne is a book written by Doreen based on her personal experience and that of people she met from South Africa and African countries such Democratic Republic of Congo, Congo Brazzaville, Angola, Zimbabwe, Mozambique, Zambia, Malawi, Nigeria, Uganda and Cameroon. Poverty is a complex matter to discuss. Doreen suffered poverty as a child and as an adult. She lived in a village where people suffered poverty and in the city where she experienced poverty as well. The aim of this book is to share insight of what poverty does both spiritually and physically. It is based on the vision that God gave Doreen about poverty. She saw a golden royal chair, upon it sat a skeleton dressed in a black gown. A man sat on the floor and put his head on the lap of the skeleton. The skeleton was putting the man to sleep. The man looked tired and helpless.
