

... we are hearing a call to a fresh understanding of what it means to follow Jesus in our world. From its origins among Latin American theologians, the term integral mission has become a widely-accepted way to describe the totality of Gods mission in the world. It is used to express the ways of serving the whole person, making no distinction between spiritual, social, physical and mental, exemplified in the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth. In order to become mature co-builders of the Kingdom of God, we need to grasp the Biblical basis for integral mission, and re-discover the challenge and calling of discipleship. Noted Filipino activist and social commentator, Melba Maggay, writes from a Global South viewpoint in her expositions of three key Scripture passages. Together they provide that fresh understanding of the life in its fullness that is our promise.
