

Unexpected Holiness . . . Unexpected Places

UNEXPECTED HOLINESS . . . UNEXPECTED PLACES is a book intended to help the helpers, those who give themselves in the service of others. Those who follow the Risen Lord into the unexpected places in life. Those who walk into the lives of others when everyone else is walking out. UNEXPECTED HOLINESS . . . UNEXPECTED PLACES follows the simple belief that the Lord Jesus stands eternally between the flames of hell and us. And He invites His believers to do the same for others, especially the poor, the sick, the outcasts, the lonely, the marginalized. But we must learn to pay attention each moment to the Mysterious Stranger who joins us unexpectedly on our journey. When we encounter Him, everything changes. Starting with us. UNEXPECTED HOLINESS . . . UNEXPECTED PLACES follows the six-mile journey in Luke 24 from Jerusalem to Emmaus, in the company of a disciple named Cleopas, his unnamed companion, and the mysterious Stranger who joins them along the way. What the Stranger does, what He says, how He acts, can provide a model of behavior for those who seek to help others. About the author: Fr. Steve Sellers is a Catholic priest who served twenty-five years as a priest in the Episcopal Church. He is a former investigative newspaper reporter and is the author of Terror on Highway 59 (1984, Texas Monthly Press) and EPIKLESIS: A SPIRITUAL MYSTERY (2013, Outskirts Press). His first book was produced by the CBS network into a television movie in 1989: Terror on Highway 91. He holds two doctoral degrees (DMin and PhD) and teaches comparative religion at the University of Phoenix campuses in Houston. He and his wife Dixie live in Houston.
