

My Boyfriend is a Mormon Vampire

If you liked Twilight, you will like this book. If you hated Twilight, you will love this book. A parody of teen horror novels filled with the customary characters: werewolves, witches, aliens, ghosts, sasquatches, teen vampire slayers, missionaries; and the usual scenes of gore, romance, deceit, sickening self-pity, lack of parental supervision, stalking, creeping, creepy stalking, slumming, bridge jumping, and occasional overeating. My Boyfriend is a ROFL tale of a vampire-obsessed girl, who is irrevocably in love with herself. Summary: Fresh off the plane from Alaska, Felicia arrives in windy central Oregon, and discovers Spencer, a sparkly godlike statue of perfection personified with his strange notions of life, death, and politics. After meeting him twice for a few seconds, Felicia realizes that she cannot live without him, and discovers he belongs to a close group that practices secret rites. But what can she say to convince Spencer to transform her into his eternal bride? Bite me?
